VOL. VII. NO. 218.

CHICAGO. WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1901.

PRICE 5 CENTS

ARIAN A STAKE WINNER.

The cool weather that prevailed yesterday, did not deter the usual large crowd from visiting Harlem. The sport was good throughout, several of the finishes being of the hair-raising order. The track was fast and considering the unfavorable weather some excellent time was hung out.

The Junior Staker, a handicap for two-year-olds at six furlongs with $1,500 added, was taken by Pat Dunne's good gelding Arian, cleverly ridden by Winkfield. Jaubert was thought to have a mortgage on this event but despite Carwood's good pilotage the best he could do was to finish third. To a good start he shot to the front closely attended by Miracle II. and Arian with the rest of the youngsters close up. Arian fell back a little after the first half had been run giving place to Harry New. Just before bending for home Miracle II. got his head in front of Jaubert but it was only for a moment as the latter recovered his lost advantage when well straightened for home. At the last eighth post there was a general closing up of all except Miracle II., which was seen to be well beaten along in here. Caywood worked hard on Jaubert to keep him in front but Arian came with a rush in the last sixteenth as did also Wyeth, the Dunne colt proving to be the gamest and winning by a neck while Wyeth beat Jaubert the same distance for second place. Harry New ran a fairly good race throughout and was fourth. Lucien Appleby ran a good race and is about ready to win.

Rome Reepass sprung a good one in the third race in Queen o'Day which was said to have been working fast here lately. She got a close call however as she only got up and beat Della Ostrand in the last few strides. Coburn, on Della Ostrand, tried to make a runaway race out of the affair the filly leading by five lengths as she entered the final straightaway but along toward the last sixteenth post she began to tire. Slowly but surely Queen o'Day closed upon her just getting up in time to beat her a nose on the post. Pupil was third three and a half lengths away. Wallenstein and Sam Lazarus, Esq. showed speed for a half mile, the latter falling lame. They both run best in the soft going.

Crinkle was the best of a poor field that faced the barrier in the second race, a dash of six furlongs. She darted into the lead at flag dip, getting off with a running start, and made every post a winning one, scoring by a length easily over Oliver Mc, which beat Whisper Low four for second place. Oliver Mc was all tangled up at the start, but when he got clear sailing he closed with a good burst of speed. With any kind of racing luck he would surely have won. Canova, which has not started in some time, ran a fair race considering he has dickey legs. He tired in the last sixteenth after running well up to that point. Elsie Kuhn showed speed, but could not carry it far. Sybaris ran below expectations.

Lysbeth seemed to be much the best in today's opener, a five furlong scramble for two-year-olds, and such she proved herself to be. Lass of Langden led to the last eighth, where Lysbeth easily overhauled her, and coming away without much effort won by two lengths from Lucy Locket, which beat Corinne Unland one and a half lengths for second place. The last named ran in greatly improved form over her last showing and is about ready to win when placed right.

Searcher's rush in the final eighth of the fifth race, a dash of one mile for all ages, was too much for Pay the Fiddler, which he caught and passed easily, winning by two lengths, while Pay the Fiddler finished five in front of Max furlongs and then had shot his bolt. Pay Me ran a surprisingly good race for six furlongs, leading by a good margin up to the head of the stretch, where he ran out. Uncle Jack showed some speed for six furlongs.

Synia took the last race of the day—a dash of one and one sixteenth miles, but Coburn had to hustle her out in the closing strides to stall off False Lead's determined effort at the end. She won by three-quarters of a length, while False Lead beat Dagmar two and a half for second place. Dagmar, fairly well up for the first seven furlongs, was tiring fast at the end and would have been beaten for third money in a stride or two by Fox Bard, which ran by far the best race he has shown around here in some time. Zacatoco had enough when a furlong out. Ida V. ran far below the good showing she made last Saturday. She was never a factor.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Secretary Clark has issued the program book of the racing at Hawthorne next week. In addition to the usual daily list of purses, ranging from $400 to $700, it calls for the decision of three stakes, the first of which, The Fleetfoot Stakes, a dash of six furlongs for all ages, with $1,000 added, will be run next Monday. It has forty-two entries, embracing most of the tried sprinters now here. The second stake is The Emulation Steeplechase, which will be pulled off Thursday. It is over the full course and has $800 added. The Iroquois Stakes, a handicap for three-year-olds at a mile, will be the star feature of Saturday. It has $1,000 added and should bring Robert Waddell, St. Marcos, Argregor, Admonition, Hernando and Six Shooter to the post, to say nothing of other eligibles. Secretary Clark's estimate of the money that will be distributed among winning owners during the week is as follows: Monday, $3,900; Tuesday, $2,800; Wednesday, $3,200; Thursday, $3,300; Friday, $2,800; Saturday, $3,900.

Middleton & Jungbluth advertise elsewhere in this issue that they will sell their horses in training in the paddock at Hawthorne, Tuesday September 17. The list covers nine head of well tried winners, with the more than useful two-year-old Pronta and the fast mare Reseda at the head. To those looking forward to a winter campaign at San Francisco or New Orleans, this affords a chance to secure good horses fit and ready to race. Dr. Rowell, because of ill health, will also sell his horses next Monday at auction in the Harlem paddock, Malay, St. Cuthbert, The Phoenician, Alee, Sybaris and Carlovigian, are well known locally and should realize good prices.

Secretary Edward C. Hopper has issued the usual call for the annual meeting of the American Turf Congress, which is to be held at the Wellington Hotel in this city, Wednesday, September 18. As a coincidence, that is not without its humorous side, a call has also been issued for the other American Turf Congress that is a rebellious offshoot from the original American Turf Congress, to meet in the Iroquois Hotel at Buffalo, New York, on the same date. As both calls emanated from Cincinnati, the following from a Cincinnati newspaper of yesterday is of interest as showing two different ways of looking at the matter:

"Why, certainly, Mr. Hopper has the right to call a meeting of the American Turf Congress," said Johnny Dillon last night. "He is still the Secretary of that organization and I am still the Assistant Secretary. The fact that the books and records of the organization were confiscated by a minority of the members of the Time, 1:13 3/4.

Winner—B. f, by Inspector B.—Early Morn. Went to post at 2:30. At post 14 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second handily. Endurance by Right still retains her brilliant form and practically cantered for the entire journey. Caughnawaga was easily best of the others. Belle's Commoner was swerving at the end to stall off Peninsula which as usual was coming fast at the end. Lombre was evidently short and should improve. The others were far outclassed and were beaten off.

Scratched—28154 Flora Pomona, 119; 28154 Rose of May, 109.

Corrected weights—Belle's Commoner, 107.

No show betting on first three.

Winner—B. h, by Deceiver—Maudlin. Went to post at 3:05. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Decanter, in light, and perfectly handled and lucky, had the benefit of a fast pace throughout and finished stoutly. Belle of Troy is in great form and ran a fine race, but suffered from a weak finish. Advance Guard stumbled at the start, but was going very strongly at the end. St. Finnan was outclassed and out of place. Wax Taper was much overweighted on his present form. Water Cure has always shown a dislike for weight, but his race was too bad to be true. Bellario cannot stay among good ones.

Scratched—28183 The Rhymer, 112; 27896 The Amazon, 100.

Overweights—St. Finnan, 3 pounds.

Decanter, show, 1 to 2. Belle of Troy, show, 6 to 5. Advance Guard, show, 7 to 10. Water Cure, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—B. g, by Logic—La Sylphide. Went to post at 3:55. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Semper Ira was cleverly handled, went to the front at the end of a mile and a quarter and appeared a sure winner after that. Cephalalgia finished strongly, but was lucky to beat the badly handled Miss Mitchell, which in addition to setting a hot pace jumped badly, losing much ground, but showed much speed on the flat. Matt Simpson fenced very badly and was short. He ran into and carried away part of almost every hurdle. Charagrace's rider fell off conveniently at the first hurdle. Throw the race out. The horse had worked very fast.

Scratched—28003 The Bachelor, 147.

Winner—B. g, by St. Andrew—Marian.
Went to post at 3:50. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Arian stood a long drive down the stretch and showed great gameness. He improved wonderfully over his last previous race. Wyeth came strongly in the last eighth, but could not quite get up. Jaubert tired rapidly in the last hundred yards and it was only Caywood's clever riding that got him as close up as he was at the finish. Harry New ran a fairly good race throughout. Lucien Appleby was right there at the finish and is about ready to win. Miracle II. had enough when a furlong out.
Scratched—27793 Herodiade, 103.
Overweights—Arian, 4 pounds; Harry New, 1; Lucien Appleby, 31; Jaubert, 11.

Winner—Ch. g, by Hindoo—Queen Regent.
Went to post at 4:20. At post 12 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Searcher finished fast through the last eighth and had little trouble in outgaming Pay the Fiddler in the closing strides. The latter appeared all over the probable winner in the last eighth but tired badly from there to the wire. Max Bendix tired and fell away when a furlong out. Pay Me was speedy for three quarters and then quit. He ran out at the head of the stretch. Uncle Jack ran fairly well for a half mile.

Winner—Ch. m, by Pardee—Julia Magee.
Went to post at 5:05. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. After the quarter had been run Synia assumed command and remained there to the end, but Coburn had to hustle her up in the closing strides to stall off False Lead's determined bid. The latter ran a good race and was much the best of the others. Dagmar just lasted long enough to beat Fox Bard on the post. The latter ran in much improved form and is ready to win when placed right. Ida V. ran far below expectations. Zacatoso showed well for seven furlongs and then fell away beaten.
Overweights—Zacatoso, 3 pounds; Dagmar, 2.

EASTERN TURF TOPICS.

Peter Wimmer will ship old Imp back to her owner, D. H. Harness at Chillicothe, Ohio, this week where she will be placed in the stud. Racegoers have not forgotten her sensational career, including her victory in the Suburban Handicap when Banastar was left at the post, and her magnificent running in the Brighton Cup a year ago which forced Ethelbert to break records to defeat her. It was thought at first that Imp could be gotten into shape to do some more fine racing this year, but after her sole victory at Saratoga Mr. Wimmer concluded that the mare had reached her best form and that from that point she would retrograde instead of progress. In that belief he was correct, for Imp gradually drifted out of form, so that on Friday last she made a sorry showing which wound up her career as a racing thoroughbred. It will be many years before Imp will be forgotten by those who followed her in all her races, and cashed many a winning bet, too, says The Sun of Monday.

The performances of J. B. Haggin's Water Color during the past week have more than proved the assertion that the Watercolor colt comes pretty near being the best three-year-old in training just now. Though some persons have stated that Water Color does not possess gameness and cannot stand to be overhauled by a rival, it must be admitted that it takes a pretty good race horse these days to catch the fleet-footed three-year-old. After Water Color's splendid performance in the Century Stakes on Saturday it was remarked by more than one horseman that if Commando had not gone amiss a race between the great son of Domino and Water Color would have been worth going miles to see. But with Commando a permanent cripple and about to be retired to the stud, Water Color, it would seem, has a right to the title of champion three-year-old. J. G. Follansbee's Roehampton, the winner of eight consecutive races, who is indisposed with fever, is close to the head of the three-year-old class, but it is not believed that he could cope with Water Color in weight carrying and in going a distance. In all the big stake races left to be decided, Water Color will be sure to have a following.

This is the last week of the Sheepshead Bay meeting and the program bristles with attractions. Most important of all are the Annual Championship Stakes of $25,000 for three-year-olds and upward at two miles and a quarter, and the Great Eastern Handicap of $7,500 for two-year-olds at three-quarters of a mile, both to be run next Saturday. The withdrawal of Commando from the arena is a source of particular regret, inasmuch as turfmen expected to see him triumph in the Annual Champion if fit, but even with Commando out of it, there is likely to be a fine field to face the starter. Water Color, unfortunately, is not eligible, but Prince of Melbourne, now the property of G. Walbaum, will probably start together with others including A. L. Aste's King Bramble, August Belmont's Brigadier, Deimel & Farrell's Ildrim, James R. Keene's Toddy, J. H. McCormick's Alcedo, W. H. Sealey's Rockton and Duoro, the latter finishing third last year; George E. Smith's Lothario, A. Featherstone's Mortallo, C. T. Patterson's All Green, Richard Croker's Bellario, J. B. Haggin's Sharpshooter, R. T. Wilson, Jr.'s The Parader and others.

For the Great Eastern there should be a representative gathering of youngsters, among the best of the eligibles being W. C. Whitney's Nasturtium, Yankee, Goldsmith, King Hanover and Gunfire, Clarence H. Meckay's Heno and Gay Boy, John W. Schorr's Endurance by Right, A. H. and D. H. Morris' Compute, Perry Belmont's Flywheel, J. E. Madden's Peninsula, City Bank and Lapdice, J. G. Follansbee's Cameron, A. Featherstone's Hatasoo, John Daly's Baron, Albemarle Stable's Lux Casta, August Belmont's Masterman, S. S. Brown's Hyphen and Frank Farrell's De Reszke.

In explanation of his ride on Blue Girl in the Great Filly Stakes, Jockey Shaw said: "I got away from the post well, but was slightly interfered with and was soon thrown back into a bunch of horses. I made a move to go through just as we approached the bend, but was carried to the outside by Josepha. Rounding the bend Blue Girl was as close as possible to the bunch on the outside. I had to take a hold of her in order to straighten her up for the run in. As soon as she was straight, I started to ride her and continued to do so to the end. I was very anxious to win the race for Mr. Whitney and could not have lost had not Josepha pushed me to the outside, as I made a run to get through an opening."

THOROUGHBREDS SOLD.

The entire racing stable of M. Murphy and a number of horses from James Galway, L. W. Myers and other owners were placed under the AMERICAN JOCKEYS TO RETURN.

At last there appear signs of a reaction in the craze of American jockeys to go abroad to ride. At least one has reconsidered the matter and will remain here, notwithstanding good offers from the other side, and still another has cancelled his engagements and will remain here to ride for a prominent and important stable. Several others have been over and, failing to do as well as they expected, have, under one excuse or another, returned, and several more still remaining are acknowledged to be far from prosperous.

This is cause for congratulation from whatever point of view it is looked at. The best place for an American boy is right here, and the present season has demonstrated that it was not lack of opportunity which was crowding down what many believed to be a host of unrecognized talent. This year many boys have been called from the winter tracks, and those of the west, but with very few exceptions—almost to be counted on the fingers of one hand—these have neither lived up to their previous records nor performed up to the standard of the metropolitan tracks. In other words they have neither equaled nor approached the performances of even our third rate boys. In the case of the few exceptions their talent was immediately recognized and rewarded. This has been no new experience; it is what has proved the case almost every year. Kings of Tin elsewhere to be lost in the stretch in the east.

Never was there such an opportunity for good boys as in this country for the remainder of this season, and the seasons to come. The supply to hand has been tried and except in a few instances has been found decidedly wanting. Some of the leading boys of last year have apparently lost all their old skill, demonstrating apparently that to the trainer's care and judgment, much of the personal reputation of these individual jockeys has been due. The percentage of success achieved by American jockeys in England, is not so great as it was a year or two ago, possibly the English boys have learned something, and perhaps improved on it, and if it gives rise to a desire on the part of Native Born to head homewards it will not be a subject for regret.

Sterling good boys, with good hands, a staple seat, a clear head—not given to undue enlargement—who will ride to orders, and have a little judgment of their own when needed, were never more in demand than at present, and it only needs one or two more to turn the scale and bring most of the errant chickens home to roost. —Spirit of the Times.

Winner—B. c. by Fitzjames—Sekanet.
Went to post at 2:30. At post 7 minutes. Start fair. Won in a canter; second easily. Fitzkanet was in a soft spot. He seemed to like the going, winning off by himself all the way. Churchill was quite as easily second. He was ridden poorly and floundered a good deal in the soft spots. Ford, away poorly, finished with great determination. Harry K. was poorly ridden by Givens, who took him all over the track looking for dry spots. He did not seem to relish the mud.
Scratched—27951 Thalia Black, 104; 27949 Fairbury, 104.
Overweights—Hilliard, 2 pounds.
Churchill, show, 3 to 5. Ford, show, 8 to 5.

Winner—B. c. by Register—Miss Pollard.
Went to post at 3:01. At post 9 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Bart Howe, favored by the going, ran a good race under an efficient ride. He acted like a good one in mud. Bendora, off away back and in a jam, had to run through a straggling field. He came very fast at the end and was probably best. Moro liked the going and ran an excellent race under a stable boy. Goody Good, badly handled, came fast on the good going in the stretch. Florrie S. went well in the mud.
Overweights—Goody Good, 2 pounds; Virginian, 2.
Bart Howe, show, 1 to 2. Bendora, show, evens. Moro, show, 6 to 1. Goody Good, show, 7 to 10.

28216 THIRD RACE—7-8 Mile. Purse $400. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—B. m. by Knight of Ellerslie—Dearest.
Went to post at 3:38. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily after a short early drive; second easily. Nearest was much the best at the weights. She ran with Our Lady to the stretch head, then came on when shaken up and hit once with the whip. Chappaqua found the soft going hard to negotiate, but came very fast on the extreme outside in the stretch, where the track was dry. Our Lady could not concede the weight. She likes mud when it is deep. The others were misplaced.
No show betting on first three.

Time, 26½, 53, 1:19½, 1:45½, 1:50½.
Winner—Ch. c. by Rowland—Frances Nichols.
Went to post at 4:09. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won pulled up; second handily. Dandy Jim was in his element, showed the most early speed and with nothing to run with him, was in a soft spot. Wall, rather high in flesh, ran a good race going in the soft mud most of the way. Joe Doughty was poorly handled. Picador ran a bad race.
Scratched—28167 Alice Turner, 104.
No show betting.

Time, 13, 25, 50, 1:05½, 1:12½.
Winner—B. f. by Ingoldsby—Maggie Moore.
Went to post at 4:35. At post 15 minutes. Start bad. Won handily; second driving. Lillian M., a slashing big filly, picked up the weight as if it was a feather, took the bad going all the way, came gamely in the stretch when driven and won rather handily at the end. W. L. George was well handled and ran an extra good race. Kaffir made up ground and finished strongly. Lynch tired in the going. Mada Bell was going well to the stretch where she quit. Miss Gaines showed a dislike for the mud.
Scratched—28141 Varner, 103; 28141 Maria Elena, 100.
Overweights—Mada Bell, 2 pounds; Halmis, 2.
Lillian M., show, 2 to 1. W. L. George, show, 3 to 1. Kaffir, show, evens. Sister Sarah, show, out.

Winner—Br. h. by Cavalier—Herschel.
Went to post at 5:18. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Swordsman revelled in the going, was well handled and came on and won when asked. Orlandine ran a good race, took to the going kindly and wore down Terra Incognita, which was in the good going in the run home. Terra Incognita tired on the heavy track, though he went well in it for six furlongs. Zazel never could go in the mud. Monk Wayman sulked.
Scratched—27978 Eugenia S., 105.

Went to post at 3:37. At post 11 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Frank McKee went to the front at his leisure and won under restraint. Barricade ran well but hung when it came to a drive. He had no mishaps. Santa Bonita showed improvement and early speed but also hung when it came to a drive at the end. Queen Friese closed a big gap. Hattie Davis was pocketed in the first quarter or she would probably have finished inside the money.
Scratched—28187 Dominican, 104.
